

Use a licensed local guide on every visit to a tourist destination

Support local expertise and get the most out of your experience.

Carry a reusable water bottle and bag

Help reduce waste by using eco-friendly items.

Use official Foreign Exchange Agents and pay in Rupiah

Avoid scams by using trusted currency exchange services.

Have a driving license and must wear a helmet when riding a motorcycle

Ensure safety by following local traffic regulations.

Do obey traffic signs when driving

Traffic signs are important for a smooth journey; follow them.

Respect instructions from police, guides, drivers, and locals when traveling or doing activities

Listen and follow directions from authorities and locals for a safe experience.

BALI
GOVERNMENT
TOURISM BOARD

wonderful indonesia

The Bali Etiquette Handbook:

Play Nice, Stay Right

Do's things that are nice
you can do!

Be aware of offerings in certain place

Respect local customs and avoid stepping on religious offerings.

Dress modestly at temples and sacred areas

Cover your shoulders and legs when visiting sacred sites.

Be polite to locals with smiles

A warm smile goes a long way in showing respect.

Stay at licensed accommodations in compliance with regulations

Select licensed stays or lodges to ensure a safe and legal experience, following all applicable laws and regulations.

Do not use offensive or disrespectful language or gestures

Be mindful of your words and actions to foster positive interactions.

The Bali Etiquette Handbook:

*Play Nice,
Stay Right*

Don'ts things that are not nice
you can do!

Do not litter on beaches, lakes, streets, or natural areas

Help keep Bali clean and beautiful by disposing of waste properly.

Do not enter sacred parts of the temple

Sacred areas are restricted and reserved for religious purposes.

Do not swim in dangerous areas and ensure lifeguards are present

Safety comes first when enjoying Bali's waters.

Do not visit temple in period time
*for women

It is considered disrespectful to visit temples during this time.

Do not drive or ride above average speeds and under the influence of alcohol

Driving safely ensures the well-being of everyone on the road.

Do not touch or climb religious offerings, statues, and buildings

Preserve the sanctity of these cultural and spiritual elements.

Do not engage in work or business and illegal activities without appropriate permits

Always follow local regulations for work and business endeavors.

Do not disturb people who are worshipping

Maintain a peaceful environment for those engaged in religious practices.

Scan the QR code for more travel insight and updates

MAR COMI

lovebali.baliprov.go.id

Do not display pornographic behavior in public places

Public spaces must be respected; avoid inappropriate conduct.

